5.	Since 1954, there have been indications of a widening rift withing the Albanian Communist Party. One group would like to detach the Party from the dominating influence of the USSR as has been done in Yugoslavia. The members of this group favor the establishment of an independent Communist Party and the resumption of economic and cultural relations with all countries. The other group which is headed by Mehmet Shehu is loyal to the Soviets.
6.	The ll years of the red regime have had their effect on the youth of the country. The results of Communist education became visible about three years ago. Young people very often show a surprising amount of knowledge in the field of politics and religion. It is believed that about 60% of Albanian youth sympathize with Communism. Women and girls who have lived a life of seclusion for centuries consider Communism their liberaton
